THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

. The platform of principles adopted by the Democratic Convention, is a document that no good citizen could this was forced upon the Egyptian refuse to subscribe to. It shows that Government, its members drawing the Democratic party is in accord very large salaries for their services. with the most advanced spirit, Since this commission has been in and best interests of the Territory. It justly condemns the Indian policy of the Republican party, and calls for the removal of the aboriginees to the Indian Territory so far as practicable, or if not that they be disarmed immediately and turned over to the care of the War Department. This is in accordance with a bill passed by a Democratic House of Representatives a few years ago, and rejected by a Republican Senste. The platform very properly condemns the precedent established by Republican administrations of choosing federal officials for the Territory from outside its borders. There is no doubt but from among our permanent population competent officials could be chosen who are animated by the same spirit as the body of the people, understand our wants, and are familiar with our resources, customs and laws. Previous to the had established the custom of taking the territorial federal officials from the citizens of the Territory. As may be expected from a Demonot a plank in the platform on which every good citizen in the Territory could not stand. It is not a meaningless jargon of words thrown together for a purpose, but the welldefined and clearly uttered principles of a great party. With such principles inscribed on our banner, and a standard bearer in the person of Granville H. Oury there is no such thing as Democratic defeat.

THE recent raid, by Mexican cus tom house officials, upon the terri tory of the United States, cannot be too strongly condemned. It was a gross breakage of international law, and the killing of an American citizen, under the circumstances, can only be characterized as foul murder. The ourrage probably resulted from the vanity or ignorance of some small official, but the government of Mexico should be required to indemnity the United States for the national insult, by a degradation of the officer who committed the wrong. It is much to be desired that the amicable relations, between the two republics, may not be disturbed, and no better guarantee of good faith and honorable intercourse can be given than in a prompt redress of

Our twilight contemporary of radi cal tendencies is inclined to speak lightly of the candidature of Granville H. Oury, and threatens to give some reasons in the sweet by and by, why he should be defeated. We are awful sorry for our esteemed contemporary, but as there are but two sound legs between the two Republican candidates for the nomination, we are much afraid Mr. Oury will distance them in the race.

THE people of Russelville, in the northern skirt of this county, are anxious that the Board of Supervisors should establish an election district at that place and appoint a Justice of the Peace for that precinct. If not incompatible with the public business, we hope the Supervisors will take the matter under considera-

THE Proenix convention concluded its labors barmoniously Wednesday by nominating W. B. Horton, of Tucson, for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Horton is a practical educator, was for some time princidal of the Tucson schools, and is an able and accomplished gentleman.

THE EGYPTIAN WAR.

Admiral Seymour of the British navy commenced the bombardment of Alexandria at 7:30 a. m., Tuesday morning. This is an actual declaration of war against the Sultan as Egypt is a province of the Ottoman Empire. What the result will be, it is difficult to determine at the present time.

The affairs of Egypt, mainly through the extravagance of Saed Pasha and Ismail Pasha, have been for years getting into a more and more entangled condition. Loan after loan, each of gigantic dimensions for so small a country, has been foreated, all of them being raised at ruinous discounts and equally ruinous interest. The holders of Egyptian bonds are principally to be found in England and France, and in addition to this, the Suez canal is now owned principally by the British Government, Disraeli, when Premier having effected a purchase of a majority of the stock, and it is regarded in England as a possession vital to the safety of British interests in India. When Egyptian finances some half dozen years ago got into apparently inextricable confusion, a joint commission of English and other Europeans was created to take control of her revenues, and power something like order has been restored, and the interest on the bonds, the main point after which it had to look, has been regularly paid. But it is easy to imagine how distasteful to the Egyptians of the upper ranks were those Commissioners, particularly as a part of their duties was necessarily to curtail the opportunities for embezzlement and peculation which had been so numerous and so largely made use of under former administrations. It is related in a report of the commission, as one instance of this, that an officer of the Government, with a salary of 10,000 piastres, had in the course of five years managed to accumulate £1,- 000,000 sterling. In watching the turn of events there are some points that it is well to bear in mind. The first of these is that Turkish power has been materially lessened in almost every advent of the Republican party to shock of arms that has taken place power, Democratic administrations in Europe during the last hundred years. Second, the tie that binds Egypt to allegiance to the Ottoman Porte is of the weakest and most artificial character possible. It would cratic body, the platform is strongly have been snapped asunder easily by in favor of free labor, and objects to Mehemet Ali in 1833 but for the inthe introduction of Asiatic slaves to terference of the great Powers of compete with white men. There is Europe, and since then has been Frank Cox seconded. Ned McGowfrequently on the verge of dissolution. Another point to remember is the impelling necessity under which England labors, or believes she labors, to maintain supreme control over the new highway to India.

> The indiscriminate slaughter of Europeans in the streets of Alexandria a few weeks ago was doubtless impelled by the governing classes of Egypt, who have long smarted under the arrogance of the European commissioners. It is now too late for England to retreat. The bombardment of the ancient city has commenced, and England must fight it out. She may have more on her hands than she calculated on. Perhaps the Sultan may lounge under the shadow of passive protests, and perhaps the hordes of Islem from all over southwestern Asia may be called to defend the "sacred flag." In any event England is placed in an embarrassing position. It is a queer commentary on the past policy of the country which has consistently declared for the maintenance of the integrity of the Turkish Empire, that this same champion should appropriate the biggest and richest slice of those dominions to its own use. In the meantime England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity, and what are the Irish going to do about it?

> MR. LARKIN W. CARR, of Benson, comes to the front as an avowed candidate for the Democratie nomination for Sheriff. Mr. Carr is too well known to the people of this county to need an eulogy. He is a high-toned, honorable man, a consistent Democrat, and if nominated would poll the full party strength in the county. Mr. Carr is a heavy taxpayer, and extensive property owner, and if elected Sheriff, would take to the office the weight of much experience in public affairs, and good executive ability.

> THE Daily Independent made its appearance in the world of journalism Tuesday morning, and is in every way creditable to its projectors and editors. It promises to be independent in politics, and hints that it might be saucy when occasion requires. If merit is sought, by patronage, there is no doubt of the success of our young contemporary.

The Phonix Gathering. (Special to the Epitaph. PROENIX, A. T., July 11 .- Promptly at 12 m. the Democratic Territorial convention was called to order by A. D. Lemon, secretary of the Territorial Democratic Central Committee, the chairman of the cemmittee being absent. A temporary organization was effected by the election of D. K. Wardell as temporary chairman and A. D. Lemon as temporary secretary. Mr. Wardell, on taking the chair, thanked the convention for the honor conferred, and suggested that the convention proceed to transact the business before it. On motion of Samuel Purdy, of Cochise, a committee of six was appointed by the chairman to examine and report on the credentials of the various delegates present. The committee appointed consisted of James J. Steen, Yuma; John Davis, Yavapai; Samuel Hamilton, Mohave; Alonzo Bailey. Gila; P. R. Brady, Pinal, and J. H. Davis, Cochise. On the appointment of the committee on credentials, Samuel Purdy, of Cochise, moved that the convention adjourn for one hour, to give the comto report. The convention took a recess for one hour to await the report of the committee on credentials. After recess the committee on credentials submitted the following report: Twenty delegates present, and fifteen by proxy. On motion of Samuel Purdy, of Cochise, the report of the committee on credentials was accepted as reported and the committee discharged with thanks. On a call for the nomination of permanent officers, W. A. Rowe, of Yavapie, was nominated and unanimously elected chairman and A. D. Lemon secretary. On being conducted to the chair by a committee Mr. Rowe excused himself from making a speech on the score that the unanimity of feeling existed among the delegates of the various countis rendered it unnecessary. Samuel Purdy moved that the convention proceed to nominate a Delegate to Congress. L. C. Hughes, of Pima, seconded. The motion was opposed by Curetan but

Recognizing the wide difference between the government of State and Territory, they believe that the wise and frater nal policy inaugurated by the Democratic party for the government of the Territories, and illustrated by successive years of Democratic succession in the national legislature and the administration of federal affairs, if properly carried out, will subserve every social and material interest of the people, but this convention declares that the administration of the Republican party has not accomplished these purposes in the Territory. They have reterded the growth of the frontier camps by quartering in their midst hostile savages. They have sent from distant States federal officers to discharge executive functions and administer the laws of the Territory, where men of equal intelligence could have been found among our own people; there-

Rowe, of Yavapai, was elected Chairman of the Central Committee, and H. H. Carter Secretary. After a general interchange of views on the plans of organization and campaign, the Convention adjourned sine die. From the opening to the close of the Convention, harmony and good will prevailed, with a zeal for the success of the candidates of the party never known before in Arizona.

Washington News.

Washington, July 12 .- Hale, Logan and Davis, of West Virginia, sub-committee of Senate committee on appropriations, having in charge the naval appropriation bill comple ted their work this afternoon. Very little change was made in the House bill in the items of the appropriation bnt several material modifications were made in matters of legislation affecting the personnel of the navy, with a view of avoiding the harshness in the features of the House bill, which in cutting down the number of officers would for many years completely block promotion.

The internal revenue bill was further amended and corrected by the Senate Finance Committee to-day. Friends of the river and harbon bill were somewhat alarmed by reports that the President was likely to veto the bill. Two members of the Cabinet expressed themselves as opposed to the bill. It is thought too great a burden to impose upon the country. The President humself made a careful inquiry regarding the bill, indicating that he feels much interested.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

London, July 12 .- The Times correspondent, writing about yesterday's bombardment, says: The gunboats played an active part by creeping up close to the forts and silencing them Several guns of the Inflexible made splendid practice. The Temeraire was ashore some time, but floated subsequently. The gunboat Condor ran within twelve hundred yards of Marabout Fort, a single shot from which would have sunk her, and before the signal to cease firing was given she had silenced three great signaling "Well done, Condor."

THE BESIEGERS EUCHRED.

ALEXANDRIA, July 13 .- At eight o'clock p. m , yesterday, the Admiral summoned the captains of the fleet to a consultation. The result was a decision that the sea was too heavy for serious operations. Admiral Seymour therefore deferred his attack on the Marabout forts. I'wo eighteenton guns on the ironclad Alexandria were disabled from shot having passed through her port-holes. It seems that the officers and staff supposed Ali Arabi Bey was in the hospital battery. Finding themselves in a dangerous position, and uable to escape, they had simply hoisted a flag of truce in order to get out of the fire. There was great indignation expressed that five hours should have been wasted in abortive negotiations. When the fire broke out in Alexandria a mob began to pillase and destroy.
